

BSU to host Cape Verdean conference

By The Standard-Times

Posted Apr 17, 2018 at 12:45 PM

Updated Apr 17, 2018 at 12:45 PM

Bridgewater State University will host the annual Conference on Cape Verdean and Diaspora Studies on April 20 and 21.

The conference features panels on technology and innovation, culture and social integration, language and education, transnationality, music, law and social justice, and literature and literacy. The keynote speaker on April 20 will be Lindsey Grace of American University.

Attendance is free and buses are provided for community members wanting to attend.

For conference information, contact the Institute for Cape Verdean Studies at 508-531- 2622. General attendees can register for free at www.cvcon2018.com.